Professional Experience

Owner, Principal Designer ▪ flow14 ▪ JUL 2017 – Present

flow14 is an independent branding and design studio that specializes in helping clients connect with their audiences through thoughtfully designed communications, including websites, branding, and more.

- I work directly with a range of clients—including nonprofits, businesses, and political groups—creating breakthrough branding and communications through user-centered design and creative strategy.
- Designing and developing responsive websites using HTML, CSS, and JavaScript, with extensive experience developing and maintaining CMS-driven websites.
- Consulting on digital creative strategy, including research, presenting findings and recommendations, and creation of assets, templates, and training materials.
- Logo design and brand strategy, including creating business collateral and style guides.

Director of Creative ▪ Vista Outdoor ▪ OCT 2016 – JUN 2017

Vista Outdoor is a leading designer, manufacturer, and marketer of consumer products in the outdoor sports and recreation markets with a diverse portfolio of brands, including Bushnell, Camelbak, and Giro.

- Led and inspired teams of designers, copywriters, photographers, and videographers across multiple US offices. We created impactful communications for Vista Outdoor's 50 brands, including packaging, brand development, advertising, trade show materials, digital content, and a top-rated TV series.
- Created and implemented a company-wide creative brief. As part of the implementation, I led training sessions for Marketing and Sales associates across five US offices and created on-demand training materials and guidelines to encourage consistent usage and implementation.
- Developed and executed integrated product marketing strategies and tactics for 130 new product introductions by working with Vice Presidents of Marketing, business unit directors, and managers of marketing, brand, trade shows, and product development.
- Collaborated with the Web and Digital Creative Manager to align cross-team priorities, processes, and tools to ensure a consistent user experience across advertising and marketing channels.
- Managed a $2.7M budget, comprised of staffing, equipment, travel, supplies, and vendors.

Director of Creative ▪ DEG ▪ APR 2015 – OCT 2016

DEG is one of the fastest-growing digital agencies in the country, combining strategy, creativity, and technology to create impactful, data-driven marketing, advertising, and ecommerce solutions.

- Led a team of on-site, remote, and freelance interactive designers, art directors, UX designers, copywriters, and videographers. We created breakthrough digital marketing and advertising for a diverse range of clients and brands, including AMC, Hallmark, Helzberg, and more.
- Worked directly with the CEO to evolve the agency's brand and personally executed hands-on design of all business collateral, both print and digital.
- Developed a strategic planning process, in collaboration with Director of Client Services and Strategy Directors, that accelerated the transformation of the business and spurred growth.
- Supported team development through mentorship, career path planning, and skills training. This led to the creation of photography, videography, and animation roles, and increased revenue for the agency.

Creative Director ▪ Garmin ▪ MAY 2012 – APR 2015

Garmin is the global leader in GPS navigation and wearable technology—delivering innovative products across diverse markets, including aviation, marine, fitness, outdoor, and automotive.

- Led a team of 50 talented creatives in concepting, developing, and producing Garmin's integrated communications, including advertising campaigns, videos, product packaging, in-store merchandising, events, and the Garmin.com design, content, and user experience.
- Worked with stakeholders in marketing, sales, and engineering to translate product development plans into strategically focused creative briefs and establish project timelines, deliverables, and budgets.
- Led the design and development of Garmin's mobile-optimized ecommerce platform in 10 countries, resulting in a 258% year-over-year increase in sales from smartphones.

Web & Digital Creative Director @ Garmin ▪ JAN 2008 – MAY 2012

- Led Garmin's web, interactive, and video teams, responsible for creating Garmin's on-screen communications, including online, broadcast, and in-store media.
- Successfully proposed the creation of Garmin's Web UX team then recruited and hired UX designers, writers, developers, and researchers.
- Hands-on design, frontend development, and performance reporting for marketing landing pages, B2C and B2B web content, and ecommerce pages and user flows.
- Collaborated with our innovation group to create a ideastorm-style internal website, which enabled all Garmin employees to share and discuss ideas for new products, features, and services.

Web Marketing Manager & Designer ▪ Garmin ▪ APR 2004 – JAN 2008

- Managed the team responsible for the overall design and user experience of Garmin's web presence, including hands-on design and frontend development of the website, marketing landing pages, interactive product demos, and microsites.
- Led the first major redesign of Garmin.com, moving from a tables-based layout managed with desktop software to a CSS-based layout managed in a centralized CMS, integrated with an ecommerce platform.
- Worked with a small team, including the Vice President of Communications, to evolve the Garmin brand. Deliverables included a redesign of the corporate logo, website design, ad templates, and more.
